

RALEIGH PSYCHOLOGY

Counseling, Psychiatric Care, and Assessment

Therapist Position

Job Description

Raleigh Psychology is a thriving private practice with three locations, centrally located near NC State University, Duke University, UNC, Research Triangle Park, and growing family communities. We provide in-person and teletherapy counseling, psychiatric care, and psychological assessment services for children, adolescents and adults. We are hiring in order to meet the demands of the community, as we receive referrals from local elementary, middle and high schools, universities, psychiatrists, and other therapists. We are growing rapidly and desire to meet our clients' needs in a timely manner.

We are seeking a therapist to join our practice to provide psychotherapy. Our group private practice provides administrative support, a professional clinical environment, and benefits from strong referral bases, which have been developed through earning the trust and respect of our community. Raleigh Psychology is a practice that emphasizes the integration of faith and psychological practice, where that is an expressed desire of the client.
